

Living Well - A Tale to Tell...

REMEMBER ME

(May McCormack)

Remember me please,
I'm the one who cannot see,
But I come every week and park my butt,
And I listen intently to all that stuff,
WW1, trenches, medals and so on,
And the BFG! With a chat and a song,
We listen to Frank our facilitator,
As he shoves reams of paper across the table,
And as I can't see, I listen intently
To the stories of men who died relentlessly,
There was young and there was old,
Someone's sons and brothers,
I wonder now looking back
If they would have bothered at all...
Poor souls all...RIP.
